

HANS LÜDEMANN & ATLANTIC 7

PERFORMING

COLLISIONE MONDIALE: Songs from Inner and Outer Space

Saturday, March 1, 2025 | 8 p.m.
Lang Music Building Concert Hall

Collisione Mondiale: Songs from Inner and Outer Space is a cooperative project conceived and directed by pianist, composer, and former Visiting Cornell Professor Hans Lüdemann. The concert will be performed by Hans Lüdemann & Atlantic 7, an ensemble of musicians from Europe, Africa, and the United States: balafon master Aly Keïta (Côte d'Ivoire), drummer Christian Thomé (Germany), singer Tamara Lukasheva (Ukraine), bassist Nick Dunston (New York), violinist Mark Feldman (Chicago), and saxophonist Bobby Zankel (Philadelphia). This concert is a world premiere and a one-time event, exclusively created for the Swarthmore College Cooper Series.

Scan here to learn more.

Hans Lüdemann

Christian Thomé

Aly Keïta

Bobby Zankel

Mark Feldman

Nick Dunston

Tamara Lukasheva

